Vacanze di Natale 2011

24 dicembre 2011 - 06 gennaio 2012

24 sabato dicembre 2011

It's Christmas, i'm so exited! I asked Santa to bring me a videogame. In the other presents I found a globe that floats thanks to energy produced by a metal dome.

The dome is electric so it's the electromagnetism that makes it float and it seems like magic. Then I found some socks with guitars on it. Then Savanna (my new big australian sister) gave me a swimming costume from Australia I was so happy. My aunt Elisabetta gave me some money I was very extra-happy. Then my grandma gave me 50€ and I was extra-exited. At II.30 I went to sleep. And I went away in the world of dreams

Today I saw the pan e vin(a really big mountain of wood with an old wood lady on top of it) with my uncle Paolo my mum and some other friends. we saw the lady being burned by a staff member. After this we went to my uncle Fabio to eat cotechino with lentils (that I didn't eat because I wasn't hungry). And played a card game called ruba-mazzetto.
